

July 2007 Flora Sightings - Sandwich Bay Bird Observatory

Although there are some good specimens of Lizard Orchid there are considerably fewer numbers than previous years, probably as a result of dessication in the arid April weather. However Marsh Helleborines (see photo, right) are in flower a short walk from the observatory, please call in for directions.