

July 2007 Vertebrate Sightings - Sandwich Bay Bird Observatory

Brown Hares have been seen recently in the field next to the observatory, usually running about chasing each other. This photograph was taken during a brief rest unfortunately they were quite a distance away.