

Nov 2007 Vertebrate Sightings - Sandwich Bay Bird Observatory
Mammals are not systematically recorded, the following are therefore casual observations made by our warden and volunteers.

.A weasel was recorded on New Downs on the 7th. Nine common seals were recorded on the boat trip on the 9th and on the same day two long-tailed field mice were seen at Mary Bax.