

March 2008<< Back to Sightings | Printer friendly version

In some lovely early afternoon sunshine on the 14th a Peacock was fluttering about among the dunes near the Point. A Red Admiral was seen outside the Observatory on the 15th and 3 Peacocks and a Small Tortoiseshell were evident on the 31st.