

Small White, Small Copper, Common Blue, Red Admiral, Small Tortoiseshell, Speckled Wood, Peacock, Comma and Small Heath remained on the wing at the start of the month, but the presence of a Meadow Brown on the 7th was most surprising; it is a species that normally persists no later than mid September at the Bay.