

Aug 2011

Despite numerous Brown Hawkers, of which there were around ten on the Estate on most days (19 on the 3rd was a Bay record for a single day), for most other species the start of the month was dire, with very few darters or skimmers. Migrant Hawkers remained very scarce until the 10th when ten were scattered around the Estate.